BROOKLYNS AND GARVIN BEAT NEW YORK NATIONALS.

Tall Twirler Excels Mathewson in the Box-Chicagos Make It Three Straight From the Champions-St. Louis One Run Ahead of Cincinnatis at Finish.

There were solace and the reverse for the New Yorks yesterday when they were beaten by the Brooklyns. It was some relief to them that the Pittsburgs were beaten. but in taking three straight from the champions the Chicagos pulled up dangerously close to New York. St. Louis again defeated Cincinnati. The Brocklyns were all nerves and springs at Washington Park yesterday. They played winning ball and bear the New Yorks—bear them all the way. Both teams are just back from the West, and while the crowd that turned out to see them was large, it was not as large as it should have been in view of the interest that is supposed to exist in the New York Nationals.

The Brocklyns did not play brilliant ball, but they played good, clean-cut, straightaway ball, and, moreover, they played with confidence, though "Terrible Matty" did face them. The fact is, the Brocklyns had several rods in pickle for their Manhattan neighbors. The first inning was bloodless, but was New York's by a shade, as Mathewson struck two men out.

rock's by a shade, as Mannewson survived to the second inning contained action. Mertes lit for two bases and was on third with two cut when he thought to imitate the Fultz feat of stealing home. He was pointed for the plate with all sails set, and made a sprawing slide. He missed the plate in sliding and was tagged out by Ritter in addition. The same Ritter drove in two Brooklyn runs in the same inning. With two out, from McCreery—back to the old home after a spell of one-night stands—worked Mathewson for four balls. Bowerman was all tied up on Flood's third strike, and Flood was safe on the catcher's throw to first. Then son for four odds shired strike, and Flood was safe on the catcher's throw to first. Then to the rescue rambled kitter and rapped a ripper, to right for three bases, scoring McCreery and Flood.

In the fifth inning Strang's single and Dobbs's double gave Brooklyn a run, and in the sixth Dahlen single to left, Lauder slipped in trying to field McCreery's bunt and Flood sacrificed. Jones, on the coaching lines, was doing flipflaps and somersaults and hornpipes, expressive of delight. While he was in the air Ritter gave Van Haitren a fly, on which Dahlen scored. The New Yorks got five men to first base in the entire game. Warner, batting for Mathewson in the ninth inning, and an excellent pinch hitter, singled to centre and scored on Van Haltren's two-bagger.

Harry Howell's excellent slab work, backed up by rood fielding and hard hitting at critical stages won for the New Yorks at American League Park yesterday afternoon. Howell pitched a good game, allowing Lajoie's sluggers only two hits, one of which was a scratch bunt by Flick. The other hit was a home run by Hickman and was the longest ever made on the grounds. The ball sailed clean over the head of Fultz and landed, over the right centrefield fence, in the dressing room. This all happened in the fifth inning, and previous to that inning and after Howell had his opponents clearly at his mercy, retiring the side in one, two, three order. NARROW ESCAPE FOR JOCKEYS

BEAUCHAMP, COCHRAN AND MI-CHAELS THROWN AT BRIGHTON.

First-Named Rider Gets a Broken Collarbone-Nautilus Stakes for Andy Williams. With Hard Luck for the Favorite. Bon Mot Three Favorites in Front.

What came near to being a fatal accident occurred in the second race at Brighton Beach yesterday afternoon. Three jockeys, Cochran, Michaels and Beauchamp, had a miraculous escape from death. It was a six-furlong dash for two-year-olds, with a big field, and as the horses swept with a rush into the homestretch Cochran tried to take the rail with Ruth Parrish. The Top Gallant filly collided with Highwind and fell, throwing Cochran directly under the flying hoofs half a dozen horses behind. Quick as a flash Kingsboro and Long Distance went sprawling in the dust, hurling Beauchamp and Michaels, respectively, on their heads. Then as the horses dished on toward the finish line, the fallen boys were seen lying. apparently unconscious, in the middle of the track. Women shrieked and wailed. Men cried out in alarm and joined in the general rush up toward the scene of the accident But those who had made Dinah Shad a hot favorite yelled themselves hoarse as the King Eric filly, under a sharp drive from Burns, came home victorious by three parts of a length, with Luminosity, 10 to 1, beating Ned Moore, 15 to 1, by the same margin. Cochran was quickly on his feet and ran to the outer rail as if he feared another mishap. Pinkertons and stable hands jumped over the rail and picked up Michaels and Beauchamp, who were insensible. Michaels's face was covered with blood. A piece of his ear had been cut off as if with a knife. His father, who had jumped the fence, carried him bedily half way to the judges' stand when Michaels suddenly came to and insisted upon walking. Beauchamp was placed upon the soft turf in the infield to await the arrival of an ambulance. His head and neck were terribly swollen and he was unconscious when put in the wagon. He was not taken to the hospital but later was revived by surgeons, who found that he was suffering from a broken collarbone and many painful

But there were so many things to attract the attention of the crowd, which numbered 15,000, that the accident was soon forgotten. The Nautilus Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a furiong, was disastrous of for those who made Bon Mot favorite at 9 to 5. On the way to the track Bon Mot picked up a 1 stone and was slightly lame in the paddock His owner. H. E. Rowell, asked permission—of the sewards to scratch the borse, but he was informed that it was not late. The was informed that it was quickly earlied to the farth of t upward at a mile and a furlong, was disastrous for those who made Bon Mot favorite at 9 to :

a tribute to the skill of Handicapper vos-burzh.

T. Hitchcock Jr.'s Jocund again proved his gameness by taking the fifth race, for two-year-olds at six furlongs. The little Mirthful colt is a typical buildog. He was favorite in the betting and looked beaten at the head of the stretch when Bullman challenged with Montana King, one of the biggest colts in training. But when Burns went to the whip Jocund plucked up his courage and in a terrific drive won by a nose in 114. Mon-tana King was five lengths before Little Em. who ran well for her first time out of the box.

A poor lot of platers ran in the last race, at a nille and a sixteenth. Alexander Shields's Frank McKee was a heartrending favorite, for he was absolutely last before half a mile had been finished and never improved his position. Paul Clifford made the running to the end of the backstretch, where Khitai. 25 to 1, took command and won, ridden out, by three parts of a length from Blue Victor, 6 to 1, Anak, 40 to 1, took third money by a head from Gibson Light. The time was 148 2-5. Burns rode two winners. Three favorites made good.

She had never started before, but those who were in the know rushed for 20 to 1, and soon had pounded the odds down to 8 to 1. The filly ran a bang-up race, in spite of evident greenness, and will do later.

Several shrewd persons cleaned up a bundle on Khitai, the winner of the last race yesterday. He was quietly backed all over the ring, his price falling from 30 to 1 to 25 to 1. When he won, a wild-eyed man in front of the press stand turned to the reporters and yelled.

"Did Khitai win?"
"Yes," was the reply.

MATCH RACE DECLARED OFF.

WCHESNEY DEVELOPS LAME-NESS AND WITHDRAWS.

Works Well in the Morning, but in Cooling Out It Is Discovered That He Has Met With an Accident-No More Matches for Waterboy, Says Trainer Joyner. Like a bolt of lightning from a clear sky came the announcement vesterday afternoon that the match race between Waterboy and McChesney, which was to have been run at Brighton to-day, had been declared off. When the news, which had been officially promulgated by John Boden, Jr., secretary of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, was circulated through the big crowd at the there were expressions of surprise on all sides. In explanation of the fizzle it was stated that McChesney had suddenly gone lame. In the morning he had been taken out of his stall at Gravesend by Acting Trainer Joe McClain and had been worked a mile and a quarter in 2.10%. Eyewitnesses of this performance said that the horse pulled up perfectly sound and went off to his stable to be cooled out. Not long afterward Trainer S. C. Hildreth discovered that "Big Mac" was limping painfully. The lameness, it is said. developed while the horse was cooling out, and a hurry call was sent to Dr. William Sheppard, the well-known veterinary surgeon, to make an examination. Dr. Sheppard hustled over to Gravesend and after looking McChesney over declared that he had bruised the inside quarter of his off foreleg and was unfit to go to the post to-day.

Trainer Hildreth instantly communicated with E. E. Smathers, the owner of McChesney, and also notified Secretary Boden that as far as McChesney was concerned the match was an impossibility. Secretary Boden visited Gravesend track to satisfy himself as to McChesney's real condition and was soon convinced that the great horse was not "McChesney is undoubtedly lame," said Secretary Boden to THE SUN man. "It is too bad as the public had been keyed up in great shape. The Brighton Beach association did its share and still stands ready to complete the match. When Waterboy's trainer, A. J. Joyner heard the unwelcome news, he was clearly disgusted. "We were ready," said he, "and were confident of winning. In future we will entertain no further propositions for a match with McChesney at Saratoga or anywhere else. He will have nothing to do with match races anyway. It was a foolish move to go into the thing in the first place, but the McChesney people were so anxious for a match and there was such a public demand for it that we could not very well refuse." Trainer Hildreth visited Brighton during the races in the afternoon and was be sieged with questions.

"After McChesney's work this morning we were greatly encouraged." said he, "but we were amazed to find that the horse had gone lame while cooling out. Dr. Sheppard looked him over and advised us not to start him to-morrow under any circumstances. McChesney will be shipped to Saratoga on Thursday, together with the race mare Irene Lindsey, and they will be looked after there Indeey, and they will be looked after there by Frank Taylor. I am going directly to Chicago, where I have a string of twenty-seven horses of my own to handle. I am sorry that the match has petered out, but it cannot be helped." Somebody circulated the story at the track that when Owner Smathers heard that his famous horse was lame he burst into tears, but this could not be verified. be verified. Among the owners and trainers at Brighton there was a feeling that somebody had been

Among the owners and trainers at Brighton there was a feeling that somebody had been attacked by the peculiar malady known in the sporting world as "cold feet." The fact that P. J. Dwyer, representing the new Jamaica track, which will hold a meeting next week, had offered a $10,000 purse for a match between Waterboy and McChesney, and that Mr. Smathers's horse would be sent to Saratoga on Thursday in spite of this liberal proposition caused no end of adverse comment.

"The whole match had a queer look," said a prominent trainer to The Sun man, "end the moment McChesney arrived here I was willing to bet that there would be nothing doing. First Mr. Smathers said he was not willing to bet $10,000 on the side, although Joyner had his money ready. Then Hildreth on Saturday declared that there would be no race unless McChesney was absolutely fit. On Monday, instead of working Big Mac over the full route, he was breezed a mile and a half and then worked a half in 0.53. Contrary to custom Hildreth worked McChesney a half and then worked a half in 0:53. Contrary to custom Hildreth worked McChesney this morning, the day before the race. That was the last straw in my estimation, for I had been looking for a switch all along. Possibly McChesney went lame when he heard that Waterboy had worked a mile and a quarter in 2:08 and a fraction. Horses are knowing and do not like to be beaten. It's tough on the public, but what are you going to do about it's.

All sorts of stories were told by the track regulars. One was to the effect that in-All sorts of stories were told by the track regulars. One was to the effect that influence had been brought to bear on the McChesney people to back out of the match with the idea of arranging another meeting with Waterboy at Saratoga. But Andrew Miller, representing the Saratoga Racing Association, declared that se far as he knew no offer of a purse for a match would be made. Some people hinted again that Hildreth had received intimation that he would get a license under certain circumstances, but this angle of the situation was generally laughed at. McChesney and Waterboy are both engaged in the Saratoga Handicap, the Saratoga Champion Stakes, the Merchants and Citizens' Handicap, the Saratoga Cup and the Champlain Handicap, all to be run at the Spa, so that a meeting seems to be inevitable, providing, of course, that Mr. Smathers's horse comes to hand all right again. But after this the public will not take much stock in match races. That is a certainty

F. A. La Roche Vegotiates a Mile in 1

Minute 12 Seconds at Yonkers. There was some lively travelling by automobiles over the one-mile track at Empire City Park, Yonkers, yesterday. Several of the cars that are to race on Saturday were out for limbering-up practice. The best time shown was a mile in 1 minute 12 seconds, by a 35-horse power Darracq driven by F. A. La Roche. This is the car that is to run against Oldfield's record holder on Saturday. Mr. La Roche had it towed to the track and it Mr. La noche had to wed to the trace and it had a double muffler on, which, it is estimated, made it ten seconds slower than it would be without it. He sent it about ten miles, the time for each being in the neighborhood of 1 minute 12 seconds, and then expressed himself as satisfied that he could drive it a mile in a minute on the track when the time came. This was the first time the machine was run since being taken from the steamship dock and uncrated.

A new record for the track of 1 minute 48 seconds for a machine weighing under 1.200 pounds was made by J. C. Martin with a Cadillac car. The record made on May 2 by this class of runabout was 2 minutes 5 seconds.

A couple of others had trial spins on the track during the afternoon, but were not clocked. Oldfield's car was there, and so was Tom Cooper's, which is a sister car and almost equal in speed. The Oldfield car was found to be damaged when it arrived here, and Oldfield went back to Detroit to get a part needed to repair it. The Cooper car was brought on to be ready for Oldfield's use in case of anything happening to his own machine. had a double muffler on, which, it is esti-

for Pacers in 2:07 3-4. DETROIT, Mich. July 21 .-- With the track at least three seconds slow because of showers. Tom Keene burst from the field this afternoon nd won the second heat of the Chamber of Commerce Stake in faster time than any borse except Direct Hal had ever shown in this stake. Elastic Pointer, the blind brother to Star Pointer, was favorite, with Tom Keene selling in the field. Elastic Pointer won the first heat easily, but stopped in the stretch in the second heat and quit. It is a question whether Tom Keene would not have won anyhow. He came up like a shot and left favorite and field fairly standing still. After the second heat, rain caused the racing to stop, with the Chamber of Commerce Stake undecided and the 2:21 pace unstarted. Favorites were killed off in the 2:20 trot.

Aerolite was distanced in the first heat and Katrinka G. in the third. Guy Fortune, an outsider, brushed through the stretch in the econd heat and took the lead from Katrinka G. Thereafter he was invincible. He the field for $10, with Katrinka G. at $10, Aerolite at $6 and the rest at $25. In the 2:15 pace, Star Hal, the strong favorite, had no difficulty in scoring a straightheat victory. He had the speed of the race and never faltered. The attendance was estimated at 12,000. Rain fell at intervals estimated at 12,000. Rain fell at intervals and three heats were contested over a mushy track. Because of the postponement, six races and the unfinished Chamber of Commerce Stake will be on Wednesday's card. In the $10,000 M. & M. Stake to-morrow fitteen horses are entered, and possibly four-teen will start. Woodtella has broken down and is out of it. Wainscott, Patchen Maid, Cole Direct and Robinzola are most favored. The latter won three races in five days at Columbus last week, a performance never before accomplished.

McHenry, who trains Dan Patch, was anxious that Tanner complete the match at once, but finally gave in to Knox's request that the plans be consummated on the first day of the Cleveland races next Monday. Knox agrees to post $10,000 on that day, when all conditions will be arranged. There is no doubt that the race wil go through, as Anaconda was last week placed in the hands of Jack Curry, who long campaigned Joe Patchen. It has been the height of Curry's ambition to train and drive Anaconda and now that he has rain and drive Anaconda and now that he has train and drive Anaconda and now that he has him he is sure he can beat any living horse. Hence the proposition of Mr. Knox. Dan Patch has never lost a race, in fact has lost only one heat, and McHenry's confidence in him is unbounded. Only last week McHenry drove Patch a half in public at Columbus in 57% seconds.

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN. Two Big Centuries Scheduled for Next Sunday -Labor Day Race.

There will be two rival century runs over the Long Island reads next Sunday. One is the fifth annual "veterans" century" and the other is the renewal of the "midsummer century" of the Century Road Club of America. Both will start from Bedford Rest. Brooklyn. and both are expected to have a large entry

The medals for the veterans' run have been always much prized, and for fast riders there is an additional incentive this year in the form of prizes for the first four to finish. This will apply to the fast division only, and there will be also a slow division. This run usually attracts a couple of hundred riders, many of them from out of town. C. P. Staubach is captain, and among the pace-Stanbach is captain, and among the pace-makers will be such veteran guides as D. M. Adee, John Castles, D. H. Lodge, C. E. Burch, P. Wellenschlager, H. S. R. Smith, R. A. Van byke and John T. Wall of Manhattan, A. G. Carrier, L. V. D. Hardenbergh, W. H. Latham and T. E. Jourse of Brooklym, J. H. Havnes of Elizabeth, Harry Early of Bayonne and Harry Gills of Bridgeport.

The run of the "Americas" will be captained by Harry Veit.

The Associated Cycling Clubs of Long Island, at a meeting held on Monday night, decided not to run the "Cycle Path Handicap" on the Coney Island road on Labor Day this year as heretofore. It was understood that the Associated Clubs of New York would take up the race in case it was dropped and the Brooklyn body could not get together the old committee that has made the race a success in former years. No official action has as yet been taken by the New York clubs toward adopting the race and running it.

Rain Prevents Lawn Tennis at Longwood. Boston, Mass., July 21.-Rain prevented the playing of the matches scheduled for this morning in the Longwood lawn tennis this morning in the Langwood lawn tennis tournament. Later titlet up, and it was hoped that the men could begin play this afternoon, but a heavy thundershower broke about 2 o'clock and drenched the courts so thor-oughly that they were rendered unfit.
